

Thanks.

---

On behalf of all the neighbors, thank you for shoveling out this parking spot. As you may have noticed, quite a few people have shoveled out parking spaces. It's winter in Chicago. That's what we do here. But from now on, let's start acting like neighbors, and stop worrying about who shoveled what. Let's declare this a Chair-Free Zone. We'll do our best not to take your spot, but if someone has to, know they really appreciate your effort in making this parking spot possible.

Appreciatively,

Your neighbor
